

About Us

Assamese School of Language & Performing Arts (ASLPA), incorporated in Feb 6th 2011 is a non-profit organization operated by volunteers. Objective of ASLPA is to educate the first generation Assamese Canadian with their ethnic background and socio cultural heritages. This is a project of Assam Association of Alberta.

Remember Your Roots Stand Tall and Proud

Contact Us

ASLPA
39 Martin Crossing Manor NE
Calgary, AB T3J 4H9
403 614 1420
support@assamassociationalberta.com www..assamassociationalberta.com

Assamese School of Language & Performing Arts

(A Project of Assam Association of Alberta)

Why join ASLPA ?

ASLPA helps families and individuals to connect with people from similar background , develop social skills , talents and showcasing them besides promoting of Assamese culture, music, literature, arts, drama and similar activities. Thanks to all the teachers who volunteer, dedicate their time and effort towards ASLPA's objective.

Registration is open to anyone who is interested in participating in our programs and activities. Classes are held every Sunday from 1 pm to 3 pm during Summer, Fall & Winter. We provide class room lessons. Registration starts April 2016.

Programs & Activities

Summer : June - August

Language - Listening & Vocabulary

Music & Dance – Traditional Songs & Dance

Art & Craft – Models

Sports & Others – Walkathon

Fall : September - November

Language - Speaking & Pronunciation

Music & Dance – Folk & Modern Dance

Art & Craft – Workshop

Sports & Others – Quiz & Recitation

Winter : December - February

Language - Reading & Conversation

Music – Traditional Instruments

Art & Craft – Painting

Sports & Others – Volunteering

Call 403 614 1420 to register

Fees : $20 / student